

GreenMeadow News

April 2018 Edition

The 2018 Captain Mr George Cook takes aim ready to launch his 'Drive in'. He was supported by 83 members during the morning's competition.

Paul Williams was the lucky winner of the 'nearest the drive' prize. A power fade to the right was what Mr Williams predicted.

Junior Captain Mr Scott Morgan's 'Drive in'. Both he and the club captain were well supported by numerous club members on the 15th tee.

Following a successful 'drive in' Mr Cook was presented with the traditional yard of ale by his vice-captain Steve Browning. His balance and poise seem perfect here.

The team competition for the Captain's Drive in was a stableford team event with three score counting on each hole. John Woods, Chris Field, Neil Pardoe and Tony Harding took the first prize with a magnificent score of 122 points. Their nearest rivals, Richard Obara, Bernard Crane, Chris Fish and Chris Villars, scored a respectable 119 points.

Senior Captain Mr John Woods being supported by the Senior section during his 'Drive in'. Just before Mr Woods took to the tee the heavens decided to open, nevertheless all of the senior section gathered at the tee to 'encourage' Mr Woods.

Seniors Captain John Woods and Club Captain George Cook looking elegant during the recent Seniors dinner.

John Woods enjoying the Seniors dinner with his guests, club President Mr Lyn Thomas and his wife Pat. Mr and Mrs Trickett and club Captain George Cook and his guests.

The Cock of the north came to a conclusion with the playing of the Final on Sunday the 8th of April. The semi-finals were played out the week before with Andrew Vann and Ben Richardson defeating Bernard Crane and Tom Woods. The other semi-final was won by John Woods and Andrew Davies against Chris Field and Kyle Gilmore.

The Cock of the North Finalist r to I:
John Woods, Andrew Davies, Ben
Richardson and Andrew Vann.

Ben and Andrew took the title on this occasion. Both Pairs will represent Greenmeadow at the County Final on May the 6th at the Newport Golf Club. Not only did Andrew win the Cock's on the same day he went to Woodlake, with Adam Draper, and beat Raglan Parc in the first round of the Victory Shield. Well played Andrew.

Super Six Matchplay Pairs Competition 26th August

The Captain has proposed a knockout competition based on the 'Super Six' as seen on sky sports. The competition will consist of three groups playing six holes. Each group will consist of up to 6 pairs playing a knockout format. Group A will start on the first, group B on the seventh and group C on the twelfth.

Dependent on the entry numbers there will be up to four rounds to play to get to the final. The losers in the first round will be entered into a Plate competition played under the same format as the main competition.